Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd there is nothing I shall want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures and he leads me beside the still waters.
He revives my soul and guides me along right pathways for his names sake.
Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil, for you are with me, your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me, you have anointed my head with oil and my cup is running over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. And I will dwell in the house of the Lord, forever.

Refreshments
Jean's family thank you all for being here today & invite you to join them at Forget Me Not Cottage for refreshments after the service

God looked around his garden and he found an empty place.
He looked down upon the earth, and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.

He knew that you would never get well, on this earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine."

But now we know you want us, to mourn for you no more To remember all the happy times
Life still has in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
we pledge to you today A hallowed place within our hearts is where you'll always stay.

If tears could build a stairway and thoughts a memory lane I'd walk right up to heaven and bring you home again It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.
