

A WEDDING AT NAPPERBY.

A very popular wedding was celebrated at the Napperby Methodist Church on Monday evening, August 15, when Millie, youngest daughter of Mrs. M. J. and the late W. C. Hawkins, of "Willow Lodge," Warnertown, was married to Thomas, second son of Mrs. and the late T. Angel, of Warnertown. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Henley Smith, looked very nice in a dress of cream silk voile with train and the usual veil and orange blossoms, the veil being caught up with the engagement ring. She carried a bouquet of choice blossoms. The bridesmaids—Misses Effie Holman and Frances Hawkins (nieces of the bride) and Miss Doris Saint—were gowned in cream, with cream hats with scarlet streamers, and carried bouquets of red-and-white flowers also arranged with scarlet streamers. The groomsmen were Messrs. A. Angel (brother), F. Saint and Roy Young. The Church was filled with friends of the bride and bridegroom, the officiating minister being the Rev. W. J. Walker. The wedding march was played by Mrs. D. L. McEwin. After the ceremony about forty relatives were entertained at a wedding breakfast at "Willow Lodge," the residence of the bride's mother. The health of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by the Rev. W. J. Walker. Many costly presents were received by the happy couple. The bride's traveling dress was of prunelle cloth trimmed with Russia braid, with toque to match. Mr. and Mrs. Angel will reside at Delawere, the property recently purchased by Mr. Angel.
